

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

MENGISTU GEBREHAWARIAT TEFERI,

Plaintiff,

v.

UR M. JADDOU, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:24-cv-00867-JHC

STIPULATED MOTION TO HOLD
CASE IN ABEYANCE AND ORDER

Noted for Consideration:
August 13, 2024

Plaintiff and Defendants, by and through their counsel of record, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6 and Local Rules 7(d)(1), 10(g) and 16, hereby jointly stipulate and move to hold this case in abeyance until January 16, 2025. Plaintiff brought this litigation pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act and Mandamus Act seeking, inter alia, to compel the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (“USCIS”) adjudicate his Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal. Defendants’ response to the Complaint is currently due on August 23, 2024. The parties are currently working towards a resolution to this litigation. For good cause, the parties request that the Court hold the case in abeyance until January 16, 2025.

1 Courts have “broad discretion” to stay proceedings. Clinton v. Jones, 520 U.S. 681, 706
2 (1997). “[T]he power to stay proceedings is incidental to the power inherent in every court to
3 control the disposition of the causes on its docket with economy of time and effort for itself, for 4 counsel, and for litigants.” Landis v. N. Am. Co., 299 U.S. 248, 254 (1936); see also Fed. R.
5 Civ. P. 1.

6 With additional time, this case may be resolved without the need of further judicial
7 intervention. USCIS has scheduled Plaintiff’s asylum interview for September 18, 2024.
8 USCIS agrees to diligently work towards completing the adjudication within 120 days of the 9 interview, absent unforeseen or exceptional circumstances that would require additional time for 10 adjudication. If the adjudication is not completed within that time, USCIS will provide a status
11 report to the Court. Plaintiff will submit all supplemental documents and evidence, if any, to 12 USCIS seven to ten days prior to the interview date. Plaintiff recognizes that failure to submit 13 documents prior to the interview may require the interview to be rescheduled and the 14 adjudication delayed. After the interview, USCIS will need time to adjudicate Plaintiff’s
15 asylum application. Once the application is adjudicated, Plaintiff will dismiss the case with 16 each party to bear their own litigation costs and attorneys’ fees. Accordingly, the parties
17 request this abeyance to allow USCIS to conduct Plaintiff’s asylum interview and then process
18 his asylum application.

19 As additional time is necessary for this to occur, the parties request that the Court hold 20 the case in abeyance until January 16, 2025. The parties will submit a joint status report on or 21 before January 16, 2025.
